

Brent Townsend

"Public accounting allows me to constantly use my problem solving skills and gives me the opportunity to broaden my knowledge within various business industries, which I really enjoy."

Brent Townsend is a Principal at DHJJ with over 15 years experience in public accounting. His services include assurance engagement, financial statement preparation, accounting services, and personal and business tax return preparation.

Brent often works with manufacturers and distributors, using his expertise in U.S. GAAP to help companies with their accounting and financial statement presentation and disclosures. His experience with many different types of companies has helped him understand how businesses are run and he uses this knowledge to better serve his clients.

A native of Dwight, Illinois, Brent received his Bachelors of Arts in Accounting and Finance at North Central College and then went on to get his MBA with an emphasis in Accounting. Today, Brent is a leader in DHJJ's Client Accounting Services Group and a partner with the Assurance practice group. He is the treasurer for the non-profit Child Care Resource & Referral which facilitates affordable, quality child care for families.

Outside of Work:

Brent, his wife Kim and their two young children live in Plainfield, Illinois.

As a family, they like to get out and go camping as well as play any outdoor games.

Brent is also a baseball fanatic and enjoys cheering on the Chicago Cubs.
